

AZIENDA AGRICOLA

La Fusina

LANGHE ROSATO

DOC

TRABUC

The name 'Trabuc' comes from an old Piedmontese scale that means "three meters", in fact this Langhe Rosé is made of three sorts of grapes: 70% Nebbiolo, 20% Pinot Nero and 10% Barbera D'Alba. It is a young wine, slightly sparkling which offers a pink, light ruby hue as well as beautifully raspberry, blueberry and strawberry aromas. The taste is captivating, delicate and fresh thanks to fine tannins. Impressively drinkable, It is a wine for the entire meal or it can accompany a nice aperitif.

Production area: Dogliani

Grape variety: 70% nebbiolo, 20% pinot nero, 10% barbera

Altitude: 300 meters Terreno: calcareo argilloso

Soil: limestone and clay soil

Age of vineyard: 15-30-40 years

Leaven: selected

Vinification: soft pressing of the grapes followed by maceration in steel with temperature check

Refinement in steel: 6 mesi

Refinement in bottle: 6 mesi

Serving temperature: 10-12 °C

Perfect dishes: excellent as aperitif, delicate appetizers, and dishes of fish

