Aged white wine from old bush vines, DO Terra Alta

Wine Description

Aged white wine from DO Terra Alta, limited production. Made from old-vine White Grenache and Macabeo. The essence of aged White Grenache coupled with Macabeo, made to age, which will continue to develop its aromas and flavours through time. The wine offers white flowers and white fruits (pear) in its youth, then develops toward stone fruits (peach and quince), alongside citric notes. Noticeable body and viscosity.

Tasting Note:

Color: Toasted hay with golden reflections, clean and with considerable tears.

Nose: White flower, citrus, herbaceous and spicy, with a minerality that provides tension.

Palate: Excellent balance between the body and acidity. Apricot, orange peel, preserved fruits, Jamaican pepper, vanilla and tabaco. Opens in the glass to honey and quince notes. Persistent and fresh.

Food pairing:

The perfect match: Monkfish in coconut milk and wild mushrooms

Solid picks: aromatic and spicy dishes, sushi, risottos, fatty fishes and smoked fish, dishes with body.

Surprising hits: Paellas with shellfish, Sole in orange sauce or a la meunière, monkfish in garlic sauce, cod a la mussolina, fish cakes.

Musical Match:

2CELLOS, album London Symphony Orchestra

Illustration by Oriol Malet. A character from what seems a novel of fantasy takes us to where our senses open in a cloud of yellows, oranges and ochres, which represent the aromes and flavors of the wine (Orange peel, quince, honey and nuts) and freshness.
